Delonis Center Service Learning Program (DCSLP)

Purpose:

- Service Learning: assisting those in need of shelter, food, friendship, medical and mental health services, and other necessities of life
- Community Response: being part of a caring community in times of societal failure (soaring unemployment, economic recession, mental health treatment, personal and family tragedy, etc.

Participants:

- International Community at U-Michigan
- ECIR Residents & Visiting Scholars
- American Students interested in social issues and community programs

Location:

- Delonis Center, 312 West Huron Street, Ann Arbor, MI 48103

Transportation: meet in ECIR lounge, 921 Church St., for ride to DC

Date: third Thursday of every month, 2 groups, early and late afternoon shifts @ 3:00 PM and 5:00 PM

Number of Volunteers: 7-10 per group or shift (call/e-mail ECIR to participate)

Benefits: an opportunity to give back to the community, serve those in need, understand the complexities of social, institutional, and personal problems, experience the importance of community response, be a listening friend to those who no longer have the safety net of family or other supportive relationships

DCLSP is co-sponsored by ECIR and the UM International Center.

This program is partially funded by the Roger Pohl Endowment Fund and the generous support of many donors
